

THIS LADY'S GOOD APPETITE

Mrs. Hansen, in a Letter From Mobile, Tells How She Gained It.

Mobile, Ala.—"I suffered for seven years, with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. Sigurd Hansen in a letter from this city. "I felt weak and always had a headache and was always going to the doctor. At last I was operated on, and felt better, but soon I had the same trouble."

My husband asked me to try Cardul. I felt better after the first bottle, and now, I have a good appetite and sleep well. I feel fine, and the doctor tells me I am looking better than he ever saw me."

If you are sick and miserable, and suffer from any of the pains due to womanly trouble—try Cardul.

Cardul is successful because it is composed of ingredients that have been found to act curatively on the womanly constitution.

For more than fifty years, it has been used by women of all ages, with great success. Try it. Your druggist sells it.

Who is the Smallest Man?

Just to forestall all tales of small persons an ancient historian has left the tale of one, Philestas of Coz who lived about 330 B. C. a poet and grammarian, who was said—so the historian recounts—to have carried weights in his dress to prevent his being blown away. Julia niece of Augustus Caesar, had a dwarf named Coropas, two feet and a hand's breadth high and Andromeda, a freed maid of the same height, Alypius of Alexandria of olden times, a logician and philosopher, was but one foot, five and a half inches high.

Geoffrey Hudson, an English dwarf, when a youth eighteen inches high, was served in a cold pie to the King and Queen of England by the Duchess of Buckingham in 1626. Geoffrey had a temper. He challenged a Mr. Crofts. Mr. Crofts accepted and went to the field of honor armed with a squirt gun loaded with water. However, the dwarf is said to have shot one antagonist dead.

John d'Estrix was a present to the Duke of Parma in 1592. He then was 35 years old, had a long beard, but was not more than three feet high. He was skill in languages.

Count Borowlaski, a Polish man of great accomplishments, was thirty-nine inches high on his thirtieth birthday. He had a sister, seven years younger who could stand under his arm. Chemah, a Chinese, was twenty-five inches high when he was 42 years old. Lucia Zarate born in Mexico, twenty inches tall weighed four and three fourths pounds.

America, too, has had its famous dwarfs. General Mite, Francis Jysephe Flynn, was born in New York in 1864. The top of his head hit the yard stick at twenty-one inches. He went to England in 1884 and was married to Milly Edwards, two pounds his junior in weight. General Tom Thumb, Charles Stratton, was but 25 years old when in 1863 he was married to Lavinia Warren, 21 years old, thirty-two inches tall. Mrs. Tom Thumb recently celebrated the anniversary of her seventy-fourth birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thumb and their child and Commodore Nutt, another dwarf, toured England together.

How Vinol Made Her Strong

Beallsville, Ohio.—"I wish all nervous, weak, run-down women could have Vinol. I was so run-down, weak and nervous I could not sleep. Everything I ate hurt me, and the medicine I had taken did me no good. I decided to try Vinol, and before long I could eat anything I wanted and could sleep all night. Now I am well and strong, and in better health than I have been for years."
